APPLICATION FOR DISABLED VETERANS ANNUAL PASS

(No fee required)

The Arizona State Parks Department will issue a Disabled Veterans Annual Pass to a disabled veteran who has a service connected disability rated as 100% disabling, who is receiving compensation, and who is a current Arizona resident and has been an Arizona resident for one or more years. A Disabled Veterans Annual Pass is valid for one year from the date of issuance.

A Disabled Veterans Annual pass will grant park entrance to all Arizona State Parks. However, this pass does not include the touring of Kartchner Caverns. The following are rules and regulations for the Disabled Veterans Annual Pass:

1. Individuals may request a Disabled Veterans Annual Pass by submitting an application to Arizona State Parks: Attn: Disabled Veterans Annual Pass, 1300 W. Washington, Phoenix, AZ 85007.
2. Upon verification and approval of the application, a Disabled Veterans Annual Pass will be issued to the individual.
3. The pass will be valid at all Arizona State Parks facilities.
4. Pass allows pass holder day-use access to all Arizona State Parks. If the park has a per vehicle entrance fee, then the pass admits the pass signee and up to three additional adults accompanying them in a private vehicle. If the park has a per person entrance fee, then the pass admits the pass signee.
5. Pass cannot be applied toward other park fees; some programs may be an additional fee.
6. Pass is not valid without owner's name on it. Pass holder may be asked to show identification.
7. Pass holder shall hang/display the dated "hanging card" from the rearview mirror for entrance. The "wallet card" is for parks without a controlled vehicular access point only.
8. Pass does not allow the use of camping facilities including showers, dump station, or for stowage of water of more than 5 gallons from the park.
9. Pass does not guarantee admission to a park that has been closed, restricted, or reached capacity.
10. It is illegal to copy or alter this pass.
11. Nontransferable.
12. Pass expires 12 months from date of purchase
